The Voice of Formerly Incarcerated People

Mission

Our mission is to organize, mobilize, and support formerly incarcerated people and their families to advocate for political and social changes that will reduce racial profiling and incarceration, and to educate the community about the successes and contributions of the formerly incarcerated in order to enhance their capacity to thrive.

Vision

Our vision is to have the power to impact the political process so that our communities are safe and vibrant, with opportunities and support for people who have been incarcerated in prison to be fully restored.

We are looking for formerly incarcerated people, allies, and supportive organizations!
